

make your mother proud

We found easy ways to take Mother's Day a step further. Here's how to fete the one who spawned you and help parents in need at the same time.

old-fashioned tea and biscuits

If you can't deliver it in person and enjoy it together, send your mom this elegant new gift set from chocolatier extraordinaire MarieBelle New York. Inside are a stash of sweet biscuits and a gorgeous gold-flecked tea tin filled with high-quality Earl Grey or English Breakfast (your pick). Twenty-five percent of the cost goes to Women for Women International, which helps mothers in war-torn regions get back on their feet. $32 MARIBELLE.COM, WOMENFORWOMEN.ORG

luxe note cards

Dempsey & Carroll's fine engraved stationery has serious pedigree (Katharine Hepburn was a client). Troll its site to find the perfect subtle, sophisticated motif for your mom (is she a seashell? a terrier? a purple pansy?). The company will give 30 percent of the cost to CARE, whose global mission is to assist women and families out of poverty. $45/SET OF 10, DEMPSEYANDCARROLL.COM, CARE.ORG

"This inspired me to finally purge some clothes!"

MISSY BRUGGEMAN
executive assistant to the editor in chief

